

Atorney General Steve Carter of the State of Indiana is protecting the telephone privacy rights of Indiana consumers. I do not wish to be bothered by businesses, including businesses with which I presently have active accounts, calling me at my home where I relax.

I am asking that the FCC not favorably consider the request by the Consumers Banking Association which would allow its members to call its customers unsolicited.

Thank you very much

Cecil W. Copley